Games, Nature, & Experiments LNT Jeopardy

Estimated Time: 30 – 45 minutes

Age range: All grades (with guidance)

What you need: a computer with internet access

Background:

LNT Jeopardy is a fun game created to check knowledge surrounding LNT principles and learn new information! If you are interested in learning more about any of the LNT principles, check out our lessons!

Instructions:

1. Divide participants up into teams. If you are playing with 1-3 players, it might work best to have teams of 1 person each. If you are playing with 4 or more players, you can make teams of 2 or more people on each team. You also have the option of choosing one person to facilitate the game by clicking on the different questions and reading them out to the teams.
2. Click the link below to go to the website with the jeopardy game.

3. Click “Play Now” on the main page and follow the directions on the next 3 pages.
4. Start Playing! Click on a box under a category of your choice and attempt to answer the question given. The lower the point values, the easier the questions are.
5. If you answer the question correctly, you receive the number of points correlated with the box you’ve chosen. Alternatively, that same number of points will be deducted from your score if you answer incorrectly.
6. If you answer incorrectly and are playing with more than one team, then another team gets a chance to answer that same question, and steal the points!
7. The team with the most points at the end of the game wins.

Consider the following:

What did you learn that was new to you? What were you surprised by?

What do you want to learn more about?

New Words or Adult Tips

This jeopardy game can work well with an adult facilitator, but is also accessible for just one participant wanting to play!

The LNT principles are a set of seven guidelines that outdoor enthusiasts use to be mindful of their impacts in outdoor spaces!
